Annabelle Bexiga Assumes New Responsibilities and Leaves Selective's Board

Branchville, NJ – June 24, 2015 – Selective Insurance Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: SIGI), announced today that Annabelle Bexiga resigned from its Board of Directors after her recent appointment as Commercial Insurance Business Information Officer at American International Group, Inc. Ms. Bexiga was a Selective director for three years, having first been elected in 2012.

"It has been a privilege and honor to serve on the Selective Board of Directors. While I'm excited about my new career opportunity, the obvious competitive conflict requires my resignation from Selective's Board," said Bexiga.

Gregory E. Murphy, Selective's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer stated, "We congratulate Annabelle on her new position. Given her financial services information technology expertise, she played an important role on our Audit Committee. We wish her the best."
